Update on Adopted Horses

You will be pleased to hear that Roxy won High Score for 2006 Intro Test for Southwind Dressage and Eventing Club year end awards. I am so proud of her. Hopefully, this year we can do well at Training Level. She is on the bit more and really enjoying the parts in our workout where she gets to stretch down. We have been working on her free walk, too.

Roxy Competes

Breeze
and
Lily Belle adopted by
Lil & Bill
Chalker

She naturally has a very nice walk, I am just getting her to march out a bit more. On our hack days, I ride her in the Parelli halter and lead, and go exploring with Shirl and Dom.

Just giving you all an update!

Give Demi a hug for me! Apryl Cruit-Coscia

Chi Institute and IIEP At HPAF

In January, the Chi Institute came to HPAF once again, with a class of veterinarians studying equine accupuncture. HPAF is fortunate to have Dr. Xie and the Chi Institute come to the farm for various courses. This enables HPAF horses to receive accupuncture treatments and herbal prescriptions.

In February, the International Institute of Equine Podiatry held a training course at HPAF. Students from across the U.S., United Kingdom and even South Africa attended the course to learn the HPT method of trimming developed by Dr. K.C. LaPierre.

Your help is needed!

More rescued horses are coming in and we need to purchase feed pens so each horse has a place to be fed separately.

Also needed, a vacuum for bare floors that can handle all the heavy dirt that gets into the office!

Clean Trax

is an excellent product for treating white line disease as well as other fungus and bacteria that can affect a horse's hooves. In wet years, we have had numerous horses with white line and it was nearly impossible to get under control. After learning about Clean Trax from K.C. LaPierre, we began using it to treat the horses' hooves. It has proved to be effective in halting white line, fungus and bacteria in hooves. Special boots are necessary for soaking, but it is well worth it for healthy hooves.

For more information on Clean Trax, go to www.equinepodiatry.net or in Ocala at TT Distributors 7715 W Hwy 40, 352-854-0528.
